BIOGRAPHY

Residing in Las Vegas, South-African born polyglot Pieter Grove, was formerly an internationally known acrobatic Adagio - Skater/Dancer who studied Fine Art, Interior Design, and Commercial Art in Europe. Pieter seamlessly transitioned into becoming a Director / Producer for Theater and Live Production.

As creator, visionary, and teacher, Pieter's work is widely respected in global Entertainment Communities and Post-Secondary Education fields across five continents. His unique and innovative style of producing and directing, combined with an extraordinary Production Design palette as proficient Set Designer and adroit Costume Designer, always produces breathtaking results with a cutting edge tenacity in its' execution.

His technical knowledge and creative design background assured him an extensive international repertoire in the Entertainment Industry. Resident casino shows, corporate events, conventions, regional theater, dramatic theater, opera, and ballet as well as theme park and cruise line entertainment have seen him crossing the oceans numerous times. Wearing multiple hats, has become a recognizable signature trade mark of his, and on many major productions his credits reflect that.
